D.O.No.13/4/2017-PPD(Pt.)

Dated : 01.09.2017

Dear Madam,

It has been brought to knowledge of Finance Secretary that payments to vendors of Government e-Marketplace (GeM) are not happening within time limits prescribed by this department. It has been informed by the Commerce Secretary that there are 10 Ministries / Departments having pending dues exceeding Rs. one crore. A copy of the statements are attached.

2. Finance Secretary has directed that Financial Advisors (FAs) shall take weekly meetings with the concerned Divisions of your Ministries / Departments to ensure that the pendency of the overdues payment to the GeM vendors is reduced below the prescribed time limit of 10 days. Action may also be initiated against officers who delay payments beyond the time limits.

3. I request you to kindly take express measures to have the pendency liquidated and put in place a payment to ensure timely payments. A reply on action taken may be sent by 05.09.2017 to js.pfc2.doe@gov.in

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(K. Rajaraman)
